

Seeking members for Advisory Committees

Would you like to contribute to the regulation of therapeutic goods in Australia?

The Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA) is seeking applications from experts in medicine, science and consumer perspectives and issues, to fill upcoming vacancies across seven statutory advisory committees.

Successful applicants will contribute significantly towards the TGA's regulatory functions by providing independent expert advice on matters across a broad spectrum of issues relating to medicines, medical devices, vaccines, and other products and substances.

If you are interested in applying to be a committee member, come and hear first-hand from past and current members who can answer questions about the experience and expectations of this exciting role. For more information, and to register for the webinar session, click here. Please note the webinar will be recorded and published on the TGA website shortly thereafter.

Further information about the roles of the committees is available at <https://www.tga.gov.au/tga-statutory-advisory-committees>

To apply, and find out more about the appointment process, go to the TGA Committee Vacancies page. The deadline for applications is 11.30pm on Sunday 26 May 2024.
